THEME OF THE WEEK

This week the children will be looking and describing their features e.g see the colour of their skin, eyes and hair. Children will be encouraged to speak in full sentences. Please also do this at home. They will also be creating paper plate faces using different media. Also the children will be sharing the story 'Owl babies' and talk about their favourite part of the story.

THING TO DO AND SEE AT HOME AND ON THE WAY TO SCHOOL

- Play turn taking games with your child.
- To encourage your child to get dressed independently, in particular putting on their coat.
- To encourage your child to put shoes on and take them off independently.
- Encourage your child to touch and count slowly different objects e.g. sticks, leaves, stones.
- How will you sort your toys?
- Model to your child how to draw a family picture and encourage them to have a go.
