Be Kind, Work Hard, Love Learning

Dear Parents/Carers,

We have had some Year 7s from Parmiter's in school today to talk to our Year 6s about secondary transition. The children asked lots of good questions.

A big thank you for all of the parental support for the school that has been shown this week. There were lots of parents at the Y5 Wellbeing Play and the Book Fair has been a great success so far, today is the last day it will be running. A huge thank you too to Ruth Davies for the gardening area; it's made a great difference already.

Holly in Year 4 will be holding a 'Bring and Buy' sale next Friday 23rd November straight after school in the hall in aid of Blue Peter. Donations of toys or games in good condition can be handed in to the office before Friday.

I hope you all have a good weekend. Mrs Jackson

Beechfield's Weekly Winners are:

Attendance: Ash class with 99.6%

Y5 Wellbeing Performance

Congratulations to Year 5 in completing their mission! They successfully communicated important information about mental health and the provision Beechfield School offer to support our mental health. To help them to do this, they used the Five Keys to Wellbeing and told their story through song, dance, drama and art. Thank you to everyone who helped put it together and the parents for forming such a fantastic audience! Parents fed back how much they enjoyed the performance; how informative it was and how happy they are that this important message about mental health is being taught in school and to the whole school community! Thank you to Adam from Nurture UK and our two representatives from Watford Football Club Sports and Education Trust.

Polite Reminder: School Car Park

Parking is for staff only and those who have been issued with a disability pass by the school office. There are also two spaces for disabled badge holders only. All other vehicles will need to park outside the school at all times. Thank you for your co-operation.

Odd Socks Day!

You raised an amazing £60 For anti-bullying week. Thank you to everyone who took part.

What could say Christmas 2018 more than supporting a unicorn and her fundraising?

Hi, I'm Evie's mum, Ruth. My beautiful little niece was only 6 when she was diagnosed with an aggressive brain tumour in April 2018. She has endured so many surgeries, hospital stays, radiotherapy and chemotherapy – and still she persists. We are raising money for the Alex And The Unicorn charity fund to support Alex, her family and her hospitals through these gruelling and life-changing treatments

This Christmas, I will be baking to order homemade, traditional, Christmas (fruit) cakes for the fund.

You can order them with or without marzipan, with soft white fondant icing or fabulously hard 80s style snowy royal icing.

Individual 4in cake - £3.00

2 person sharer 6in cake - £5.00

Family sized 8in cake - £7.00

Please email orders by 23rd November to: ruthdavies59@gmail.com
